

Advanced Level Head Miller Course

Operational Milling Excellence!

Highly skilled millers will ensure that plants are maintained at high levels leading to plant efficiency and longevity.

Training of Experienced Millers

The goal of the training is to enable head millers to manage a milling plant with the best yield, highest quality of flour and optimized cost effectiveness.

Key benefits of Head Miller Course

- Understanding the technology from grain to flour
- Optimal setting of equipment
- High flour yield and quality
- Application of QC methods
- High plant efficiency

African Milling School.

Skill is the base for operational milling excellence.

Practical work in the school mill

Head Miller Course Summary

The advanced level for Head Millers is a combination of lectures and hands-on training in a professional manner.

The state of the art school mill allows practical training on wheat and maize milling. There is a fully equipped laboratory that will allow the participants to learn all about quality control from grain to flour.

Quality control in the school laboratory.

Educational modules

The educational program for the advanced level for Head Millers is built upon 2 modules. Each module consists of 3 weeks which the participants will need to attend the school.

Profile of participants.

- Experienced millers, shift millers assigned a supervisor/head miller position
- Promoted junior head millers
- Graduate Millers AMS after at least one year work experience